Mini-Retreat for the Men:

When: Saturday, February 11th: 10:00AM to 3:00PM
(Note: Lunch will be provided)

Where: Assembly of Christians, Lambertville

Who: Pastor / Author Jim Elliff will lead two sessions

What: Jim will lead the men in two presentation sessions followed by break-out discussion groups.

Topic: "See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking," warned the writer of Hebrews. From the beginning days of the history of man, listening has been the issue. Jim Elliff will help us understand the necessity of listening God's way in two messages on this critical subject, "Listening to the Son: All That Matters."

RSVP: Complete and return the attached form by January 1.
Lambertville: Return form to Pastor Jim.
Fremont: Return form to Pastor Lee.

Cost: There is no fee, as we don't want cost to be an impediment.
If you can, please contribute to the speaker's travel expenses.
See an elder if you have any questions. (1Thessalonians 5:12, 13).

FREMONT

Jim Elliff

Jim Elliff is founder and president of Christian Communicators Worldwide (CCW). For nearly twenty years prior to the beginning of CCW, he served as teaching pastor or on the pastoral staff of churches in Florida, Arkansas, Texas, and Oklahoma.

Since 1985 Jim has addressed Christian ministries, seminaries, Bible schools, universities, churches, and pastors' fraternals of various denominations throughout most of the United States and in many foreign countries. Most of Jim's foreign conferences have been in Europe and southern Africa, although additional trips include several countries of South and Central America. Jim has been privileged to address groups in all kinds of settings-everything from a witch doctor's hut to a Communist meeting hall!

Jim has a passion to communicate. He is the author of four books that have been published in the US and overseas, Led by the Spirit, Pursuing God-A Seeker's Guide, Going Under: Discussions on Baptism, and Wasted Faith, along with a popular booklet for children called The Eaglet. He has also written or edited many other booklets published by CCW. Jim's articles also appear in a variety of periodicals and his messages are frequently heard on radio. He was featured in a seven-part interview called How Children Come to Faith in Christ with FamilyLife Today hosted by Dennis Rainey, and in a five-part series on Revive Our Hearts with Nancy DeMoss. Jim has contributed chapters in several other books, as well as writing extensively for the web. Many of his articles may be found at the following sites:

www.WayToGod.org .

Jim served as the consultant for the Midwestern Center for Biblical Revival at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri, and co-directed the North American Convocation on Revival. He also participated in the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals Summit meeting at Cambridge, Massachusetts. Jim currently serves as a board member for the Fellowship of Independent Reformed Evangelicals, and is on advisory boards for Coram Deo Ministries (Italy) and Editora FIEL (Brazil). These, and other associations, speak for Jim's desire to see genuine reformation and revival in our day.

In addition to his writing and travel, Jim began Christ Fellowship of Kansas City (www.ChristFellowshipKC.org) in 2003. This unique church is made up of home congregations in the Kansas City metro area.

In 1974 Jim earned his B.A. from Ouachita Baptist University, followed by a Masters from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. In 1976 Jim married Pam Knight of Lincroft, New Jersey. He now has an active family of five. His wife and children, Benjamin, Bryan, and Laura, sometimes travel with Jim both in the States and overseas.
